

50 LEADING WOMEN IN HEDGE FUNDS 2024

Katherine Macleod

Senior Vice President, Risk, D. E. Shaw & Co., L.P., New York

Katherine Macleod is a senior vice president of D. E. Shaw & Co., L.P. and a senior member of the D. E. Shaw group's Risk unit. In that capacity, she oversees a global team of risk analysts who work with the firm's discretionary and systematic investment units. Prior to joining the firm in 2019, she spent seven years at Senator Investment Group LP, where she served as a Managing Director and Head of Risk Management. Before that, she spent ten years at Goldman Sachs & Co., where she last served as a vice president in that firm's prime brokerage risk management group. Katherine is a member of The Economic Club of New York. She is a steering committee member of the firm's DESCO Women affinity group, which provides learning and professional development opportunities and fosters community-building through events, mentoring and other programming. Additionally, she serves as an ally lead for Black@DESCO, the firm's Black affinity group. She serves on the board of directors of the Yleana Leadership Foundation, which seeks to close the racial wealth gap for underserved youth by providing support for college admissions and completion of a four-year degree. Since 2019, she has volunteered with Invest in Girls, a not-for-profit organization that promotes financial literacy for students. Katherine received her BS in Mathematics/Economics from the University of California, Los Angeles, and an MBA from New York University's Leonard N. Stern School of Business. She holds the CFA Institute's Chartered Financial Analyst designation, and the Professional Risk Manager designation conferred by the Professional Risk Managers' International Association.
